South Central Arkansas Transit (SCAT)

SCAT Services

SCAT services are offered in 18 counties in Arkansas and are designed to provide transportation to and from rural areas that previously had little or no transit services. Transportation can include rides to and from medical facilities, shopping, personal needs, nutrition centers, etc. Scat services include curb-to-curb service, For more information about services and rates, please contact the local SCAT transportation office. SCAT also serves as the ticket agent for Greyhound in those counties with that service.

Non-Emergency Medicaid Transportation

Non-Emergency Medicaid Transportation

SCAT is also the Medicaid Brokerage Agent for three regions in Arkansas. Clients that receive Medicaid and are eligible for Medicaid transportation may schedule trips to Medicaid providers for medical appointments at no charge. These appointments must be scheduled through the Medicaid scheduling number 1-800-385-9992. Clients traveling more than 2 counties away from their home county will have to obtain a travel referral from their local physician or referring physician before scheduling the appointment. All appointments must be scheduled at least 2 working days in advance. Appointments may be scheduled up to 30 days in advance.

Federal Compliance
